Hi! My name's Lucy. I'm 14 and I'm from Gloucester in England. There's a nice cathedral there and the small city is a popular place for tourists.

My family's got a large house. It's near the centre of the city and there's a park behind the house. I live with my dad, and my two sisters. My dad's really nice. He's a doctor and he works in a hospital near our house. My younger sister, Clare, is 11 and my older sister, Teresa, is 15. They're really cool and funny and they're very popular at school.

I'm in year ten at my school, Grey's Academy. It's a very good school and there are very talented students in my year group. My best friend is called Julia. Our desks are in the corner of the classroom next to the window. Julia's a really good friend and we're always together. She has wavy blonde hair, big, green eyes and she's very pretty – some of the boys in our class are in love with her.

I'm a normal teenager. My hobby is music and One Direction are my favorite band. I've got all their songs and about 20 of their posters on my wall. I think Louis is very cute – his blue eyes are gorgeous. It's my birthday next week, on Sunday 27th September, and I've got two tickets for their concert on 1st October! It's awesome!
